

PRACTICAL INFORMATION:

Course when a requestor has sold items at an auction:

- * The client (seller) are told that the object is sold and at what price when the auction ends,
- * Buyer must then deposit the auction price of the fee and possibly VAT at Hillerød Auctions, before noon. 12:00 the next working day after receipt of invoice from Hillerød Auctions,
- * When Hillerød Auctions has registered the paid deposit, get the requester notified by mail, with a copy to the buyer as agreed,
- * The buyer can then contact the client by appointment and pick up the object,
- * When buying has picked up the object of the customer that receives client settlement of the bid amount plus any VAT after the end of the withdrawal if the buyer is subject to the Consumer Goods Act,
- * If the buyer is an entrepreneur, receives client billing when the client has informed Hillerød Auctions that the delivery took place.

Note:

- * By private individuals (consumer goods), there are 14 day return policy and 2-year warranty,
- * Hillerød Auctions informs when the amount is received from the buyer. Then the buyer and the requester even arrange pick-up,
- * Settlement to the requester happening around 14 days after pickup confirmed - or when canceling the law has expired for private purchase,
- * Hillerød Auctions will send an invoice to the buyer,
- * Remember to where it offered may be inspected, and who is the contact,
- * Auction is binding. The client can not close or remove an item from the auction before maturity.

Hillerød Auctions also holds auctions locally with specifiers, agreed.
